

New career development features in LinkedIn Learning Hub

There are even more opportunities to empower your employees to develop the right skills and grow your organization.

Help employees explore and navigate career paths.

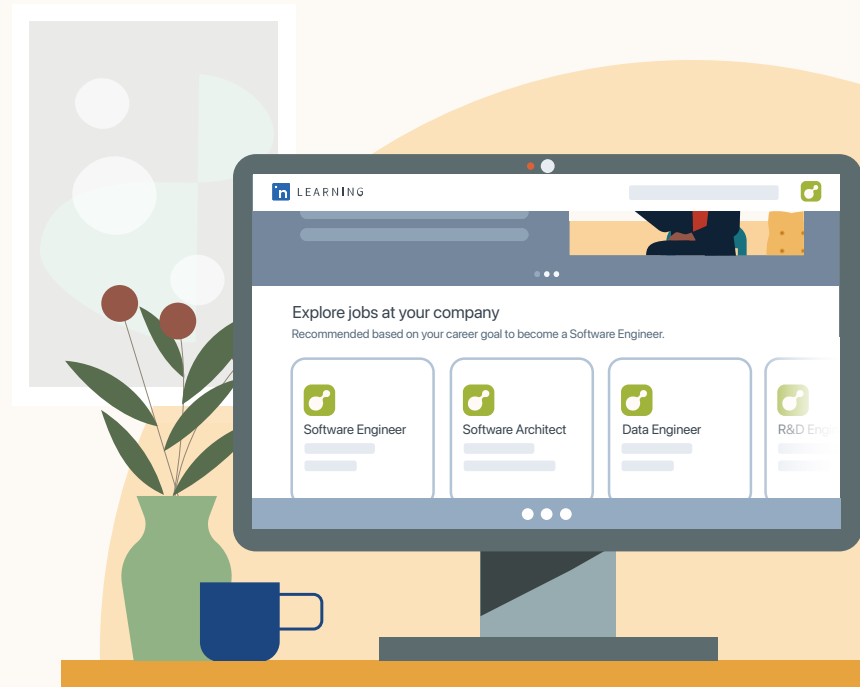

With Role Guides, demystify career development by showing employees all the ways they can grow at your company.

Tailor content to employee career goals.

With career goal setting and over 40 skill evaluations, equip learners with the ability to understand their strengths and opportunities.

Promote internal mobility to learners.

With jobs from your company in LinkedIn Learning Hub, empower employees to discover new opportunities while learning.

Why LinkedIn Learning Hub?

- Superior data and insights: Connect employees to growth opportunities based on career pathing insights from LinkedIn's global skills data.
- High-quality content: Our content is taught by industry experts and is mapped seamlessly to career paths, skill gaps, and more.
- Employee-driven: It's built to help employees advance their careers on a platform they already use and trust for professional development.
- End-to-end talent ecosystem: LinkedIn already has learning content and jobs within our ecosystem, requiring no additional integrations or manual work to bring them together.

For more information, please contact your LinkedIn Learning account team.