

Academic Quality Snapshot

The APU Online Learning Experience

At APU, a solid curriculum is supported by many student and alumni resources.

"We emphasize a culture of assessment and student engagement at APU. As a result, our students have access to relevant curriculum and are part of a broader academic community taught by scholar-practitioners who engage them every step of the way. This holistic approach creates a rich learning experience that starts at the point of enrollment and extends well beyond graduation."

Wallace E. Boston, EdD | President

American Public University (APU) is a distinguished leader providing affordable, quality online education to motivated students worldwide. When you choose APU, you join a community of students, alumni, and faculty—each dedicated to their profession and to lifelong learning.

Accredited

American Public University is part of American Public University System, which is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission (HLC) (www.hlcommission.org). HLC accredits more than 1,000 colleges and universities, including the University of Chicago, The Ohio State University, U.S. Air Force Academy, Northwestern University, and University of Michigan.

Faculty of Scholars and Practitioners

The faculty at American Public University is comprised of diverse and experienced instructors. They bring their real-world expertise from government, the military, Fortune 500 companies, healthcare enterprises, and nonprofits. More than 1,100 faculty hold terminal degrees from leading state and private universities. Many contribute to research publications and present at major national conferences, contributing to the body of knowledge for their respective disciplines.

Committed to Academic Assessment

At APU, we believe you measure what you value—and we value our students' success. You can be assured of a high-caliber education because we systematically measure what our students are learning. This enables us to offer a quality and timely curricula.

APU uses nationally benchmarked tests and surveys to continually assess learner outcomes and ensure the quality of our curriculum and support services.

Global Student Community

Our student community is supportive and engaging. Students are actively involved in academic clubs, professional organizations, and social media communities, including a virtual campus Success Center, which offers students access to academic, career and community resources; podcasts; tools; and more.
